LOCAL NOTES.

—R. L. Rudolph has company at his house—a girl, which appeared Wednesday morning.

—S. S. Cobb sold a number of mules this week to Mr. Taylor, the Frisco's live stock agent.

—Several horses have been stolen on Grand river in the vicinity of Holsen Ferry, in the past few days.

—The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a social at Mrs. Decker's next Monday evening. All invited.

—Italy certainly cannot produce weather which exceeds in mildness and comfort that which we have experienced in the past week.

—L. D. Sanbury and Mrs. Catherine Coon, living on Pawpaw, were married in this city last Friday, Jan. 24, by Clerk H. H. Trot.

—The ministerial performances given by some of our town boys last Friday and Saturday nights was one of the best shows the town has had in a long time.

—There has been considerable mad dog talk this week. Be very careful for there have been several dogs on the streets this week showing indications of being mad.

—Della Howery, of Cole Camp, Benton county, Mo., desires information of John J. Howery, who lived here about a year ago. Information may be left at this office.

—The president has refused to further interfere in the George Tobler sentence and he will be executed at Fort Smith to-day. This is the third brother hung within two years.

—At W. L. Trot's last Tuesday night one of the pleasantest evenings of the season was spent. The occasion was a "dine social," held under the auspices of the Presbyterian mission society.

—Eugene Hall has sold his news and stationery stand at the postoffice to Will Wright. The premium shot gun, for which tickets were given with cigars purchased at this stand, was drawn by a colored man living at Adair.

—An attempt at highway robbery was made upon little Myron Hulls on the street Tuesday night. A stranger ordered the boy to give up his money but at that juncture someone came out of Skinner, Ratcliff & Co.'s and the fellow took flight and ran away.

—A number of young ladies and gentlemen in company with Mrs. Capt. Barrett and Mrs. Ingram spent the day last Monday at Mr. Green's place upon Jones creek. The day was warm and pleasant and it is needless to say it was greatly enjoyed by the whole party.

—On account of the American Horticultural society the Frisco railway will sell round trip tickets from Vinita to Austin, Texas, for $22.50. Tickets will be sold on February 12 and 13. Limit three days and three days returning; final limit 30 days from date of sale.

—At Adair Monday night Vet Thompson was married to Mrs. Eliza Martin, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. M. Clark. In the evening a reception, dance and supper was given to a house full of guests at Hall's ranch and an excellent time was reported by Mr. Fred Walker, who was present.

—The Dorcas society will celebrate Washington's birthday by an entertainment in their newly decorated chapel, February 22. The entertainment will consist of historical tableaux illustrative of Washington's life, interspersed with recitations by Miss Crutcher, Laura Chouteau, Clarence Ashbrook and Lucile Fortner, and with appropriate musical selections. A detailed programme will be given next week.

—Agent Bennett was in town a few hours Tuesday morning, being en route to Catonsville to take charge of the Richards estate, which is now in the hands of J. G. Scribner, as administrator. The interior department has expressed the intention of closing up this estate, claiming the right to do so for the reason that Mr. Richards was a white man. If the department has the right to take charge of and administer upon this estate, there is no reason it may not do so upon that of every other white man in the nation.

—Charley McCallan shipped last Sunday, probably the first car of dehorned cattle which ever went from this territory. Six weeks or two months ago Mr. McCallan dehorned 125 head of his cattle, including the milk cows, without ever seeing the operation performed, and all of them have done splendidly. He thinks it a great benefit for stock which is to be fed. The horns are cut off with a small saw made for the purpose, close to the head, or really into the hair, and the time required is but a minute or so. But little blood generally flows and it takes but a short time for the wound to heal.

—Monday news reached Tahlequah announcing the death of Freddie Denningberg, the eight-year-old son of Richard Denningberg. Freddie was visiting his grandmother near Evansville, Arkansas, and last Thursday while the ground was covered with sleet and ice, he fell, striking the back of his head, injuring him fatally. He died in a few hours. On account of the creek and river being up, no news from Evansville came till Monday and then nothing definite was heard. Some say it is all a rumor, but Mr. Denningberg thinks it is true, and sent his oldest son to see about it today.

—A rich entertainment will be given on Tuesday, night February 4th at the opera hall by Rev. A. Grant Evans, consisting of recital and lecture on the "Ingoldby Legends" and their authors. The recitals will include: "As I Lay a Thyngkynge," "Look at the Clock," "The Confession," "Mistaken," "Mortgage," "The Knight and the Lady," etc. etc. It will afford an intellectual treat and wholesome fun. The proceeds to apply on the expense of painting the Presbyterian church. The musical programme will be furnished by home talent. Admission 25 cents; children 10 cents; reserved seats 35 cents.
